DETAILED ACTION

1. Pursuant to the entry of the amendment of March 30, 2009, the status of the claims is as follows: Claims 1-10 are cancelled. Claims 11-25 are new.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election of Group I, claims 11-23 in the reply filed on August 20, 2009 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Response to Amendment

3. The rejection of claims 1-10 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chiappetta et al., 4,120,145 is moot in view of applicants' amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claims 11-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chiappetta et al., 4,120,145 (Chippetta) in view of Peterson et al, 3,130,536 (Peterson).

Chiappetta discloses a method for producing a cable and cable produced therefrom, said method being substantially similar that contemplate by applicants, comprising a wire strand core surrounded by a thermoplastic jacket wherein the assembly is subjected to cold-forming processes, such as roller compacting to reduce the diameter of the rope. See entire document, and for example column 2, lines 37-63. In addition, Chiapetta discloses applying an intermediate layer of a plastic material to the core cable which holds the strands in a spaced relationship. Chiappetta discloses that the core is impregnated with the plastic material. See column 2, lines 28-36. This teaching renders obvious the requirement of claims 13.

Chiappetta does not specifically disclose hammering the strand after stranding.

Peterson teaches a method for forming a rope comprising subjecting said rope to an intermittent radial hammering action which causes the impactment of the wires and the deformation of the rope. See entire document, and for example, column 2, lines 25-36.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify the method of Chiappetta by including a method step of hammering the strand after stranding in order to cause impactment and deformation of the wires.

In addition, Peterson teaches that the hammering takes place with a rotary swager which give a large number of quick blow spaced around the periphery of the strands. This teaching renders obvious the requirement of claims 17-20. Regarding claims 21-23, Chiappetta discloses providing a coating after deforming.

Therefore, the combined teachings of Chiappetta and Peterson would have rendered obvious the invention as claimed in present claims 11-23.

No claims are allowed.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 1794

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
